Workshop Highlights
(Complete list of workshops available day of the conference)

Terrific Strategies for Managing Classroom Behavior– Reduce off-task behavior and create active learners by utilizing body language, seating, visual signals, attention and brain breaks.

Presenter: Arnie Bianco

After School Science- The workshop will consist of examples of multiple science projects, participation in some hands on projects and a discussion on the level of complexity appropriate for different age groups. We will take a look at and explore; flight, mouse trap racers, bridges, and catapults.

Presenter: Matthew Ricciardelli - Vail School District

Sports For ALL- A physical activity program for children ages 5-12, geared toward before and after school and daycare settings. Participants will learn how to provide children the appropriate practice to develop basic motor skills, resulting in their ability to participate as well as developing an appreciation for participating in physical activity.

Presenter: Lisa Rive, Innovative Learning Solutions

Problem-Solving with LEGOS– Challenge young learners with LEGO building projects. This hands-on workshop will give you the opportunity to explore challenges for K-5. Walk away with Monday morning activities as well as long-term goals.

Presenter: Caryl Jones, Catalina Foothills School District

Knowing Right From Wrong: The Development of Moral Reasoning– An introduction/overview of cognitive and moral development. How Children think about right and wrong at various ages, and how best to assist children to learn to think and behave morally.

Presenter: Jeffrey Dozoretz, PhD, Child & Family Resources

The Linda & Penny Show: A Science Experience You Won't Want to Miss– Come Join the fun of hands-on science experiences and experiments that ask the age old question of: WHAT IF...? Come and explore what you can do with cornstarch, borax, shaving cream, dry ice, liquid watercolors, dish soap, and many other everyday items.

Presenters: Linda Jones & Penny Weatherford, Vail SD

Sonoran Alliance for Youth

The Sonoran Alliance for Youth is the regional coalition in Pima County for the Arizona Center for Afterschool Excellence. The Alliance meets monthly to discuss trends, challenges and opportunities in the out of school time profession and organizes the annual conference. If you would like to join us at our next meeting, please call Marie Benson, Regional Coordinator, at (520) 749-0147 for meeting times and locations.

Arizona Center for Afterschool Excellence

The Arizona Center for Afterschool Excellence, formerly the Arizona School-Age Coalition (AzSAC), is the professional organization for individuals working in the afterschool field and the only organization in Arizona working to include all afterschool stakeholders in developing statewide systems and policies for professional development, quality, advocacy, and community capacity building.

The Youth Development Coalition

The mission of the United Way Youth Development Coalition is to assure that every young person in Pima County, Arizona is engaged in safe, productive activities during out-of-school time. Goals of the Coalition are: 1.) Advocate for children and youth within the community and legislative processes, 2.) Increase community resources and volunteerism for out-of-school time, and 3.) Improve the quality of programs through training and support for out-of-school time specialists.
